

STARTING YOUR CAREER WITH BDO!

Looking for University graduates to start the career as TRAINEES in our tax and consulting department. Come to a place where the driven and passionate build the careers they want.

At BDO, success is measured by the unique contributions of each member of the team. From day one, we'll start talking about and working toward your individual career goals. We believe in putting talented people in the places where they have the best chances to thrive. You will be exposed to more of our services to find the areas that spark your passion. We make it a priority to provide our Trainees with learning opportunities – to work on multiple clients, in multiple industries. Our environment and on-the-job experience are designed to attract and develop graduates who want to develop themselves into well-rounded professionals.

WHY TO START WITH BDO

- > We are an international professional services firm delivering integrated advisory, outsourcing, auditing and tax advisory services
- > Delivering our clients exceptional service and building close relationships with them
- > Global reach in more than 150 countries
- > A career building firm developing our people's strengths and their marketplace value

Trainees Today. Leaders Tomorrow.

If you are interested to start your career with us, please send us your CV at kariera@bdoslovakia.com