This internship brought my self-confidence, entrepreneurial and communication skills to the next level. These attributes of emotional intelligence will make my career easier. This is a great opportunity! Domas Gedvilas, Vilnius, Lithuania

I love to be here. I love that it's hard! I would advise this experience to everyone, but I know that just a few people can do it. The personal skills I gained here will give me a tremendous advantage in everything I do. Nobody in Lithuania teaches these skills Goda Zvybaite, Vilnius, Lithuania

The decision to apply for this internship was one of the best decisions of my life. It is very challenging, yet unbelievable how much I have learned, developed, and changed in such a positive direction. I now know how to effectively communicate with people. Karina Civkule, Riga, Latvia

Finally I realize what are the most valuable skills that will definitely help me to become successful in my career and life. Although, it's challenging, this intersip provides a unique opportunity to see your personal growth as an effective communicator Dominykas Tomasevicius, Vilnius, Lithuania

The training and daily work experience is extremely important and I don't think I could get such valuable experience anywhere else in such a short period of time. Now I have way more self-confidence, and a better attitude. This will really help my future. Kipras Uzdavynys, Vilnius, Lithuania

You discover your personal strengths and weaknesses. Then you realize that you can really control your emotions, thinking, and self-confidence. Moreover, you learn how to influence others by using the communication skills learned during training. Zana Malisevskaja, Riga, Latvia

The training is so well-organized and it has given me the necessary communication skills in business, while simultaneously motivating me to the point where I feel I can overcome any difficulties in life. These skills are applicable in all human interactions. Mark Misin, Tallinn, Estonia
